The European-style modern home

The new European-style showflat for Noble Hill has been opened. The designer has allowed the natural surroundings of the residential development to be integrated with the indoor areas, while incorporating classic elements into modern designs. Floral patterned curtains, wall paper, frosted glass, and the wooden table on the roof match well with the green views of Wa Shan and Cham Shan outside the windows. The functional living and dining room together with four specially designed rooms and the roof top manifest the noble style of the duplex without flaws.
